

These Cards Will Get You Drunk

ASM Games — a drinking game for ages 21+

House rules written for The Game Room from the publisher's own description of the game. This is not the publisher's rulebook; where the cards or the box say otherwise, they win.

The deck

100 cards for any group of two or more; the box suggests 2 to 8, but more can play. The cards compete you against each other, call votes, and let you screw your friends over.

How to play

Shuffle the deck and put it face down in the middle. Moving clockwise, take turns drawing a card and reading it out loud. Follow the instructions on the card to determine who has to drink. Some cards set up a challenge or a vote; some can be kept and played later, exactly as the card says.

There are no winners: keep going until you run through the deck or want a break. The point is to have fun and enjoy each other's company.

House note

For ages 21 and up. Any drink works, including water or something without alcohol, and anyone can sit out a drink. Drink responsibly and never drive after playing.
